THIS CELEBRATED WASHING MACHINE IS now for the first time introduced to the Oregon public. It is unrivalled for its simplicity, durability and the rapidity and ease of its action. Washing the dirtiest clothes perfectly clean in from five to ten minutes, with but slight labor, and lasting, with proper care, for ten years. This Machine captured the Special Premium at the California State Fair, and all that have used it pronounce it an invaluable adjunct to aid housekeepers and families and washing men and washing women.

It has been extensively introduced throughout the State of California, and receives the universal commendation of all who have used it.

The undersigned is now in the city of Portland, where he can be seen at Mr. O. Kilbourn's Store, corner of Front and Yamhill Sts., East side, Portland, and is prepared to furnish the Machine to purchasers and also to sell and dispose of County Rights for the sale of the same.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 24.

Rebel Spirit Rising in the South.

The Tribune's Galveston special says: Since the opinion of Attorney General Stanbery has been promulgated, the rebel spirit of the South has gained renewed strength. Mayor Haviland, removed by Gen. Griffin, refused to recognize military authority in the matter. During the war the rebel legislature of Texas ordered a sweeping confiscation of all property belonging to loyal men. Over sixty thousand dollars worth of property was seized in this manner and sold, and the rebel records do not show the names of the purchasers, and immense sums were abstracted by State receivers. Oliver Cromwell's confiscations in Ireland did not equal this in extent, and General Griffin had been ordered to probe this huge spoliation to the bottom.

Secretary Stanton—Gen. Sheridan's Measures.

Sheridan telegraphs to Gen. Grant declining to extend the time of registration of voters of Louisiana in compliance with the President's conditional instructions, on the ground that the registration has been completed, and he did not feel like keeping up expensive boards to suit new issues. He characterizes the Attorney-General's opinions as opening a broad road for perjury and fraud to travel on, and remarks upon the President's letter of antagonism to the reconstruction law if after this report the time is to be extended he desires to be notified, and it will be obeyed. He would do it at once, but the President's telegram was conditional.

Gen. Sickles has written to Senator Wilson stating that the appropriation for expenses provided by the reconstruction act is entirely inadequate, and the funds devoted to his district are already absorbed. The Navy and Treasury have declined to assist him with funds. The full sum appropriated was half a million, which was required for Carolina alone.

Captain Potter, of the ship Curacoa, charged with manslaughter, in killing a seaman, has been honorably discharged. Commissioner Jones ruled that the first mate was the man who ought to have been prosecuted.

Railroad Completed to Julesburg.

OMAHA, June 23.—The Union Pacific Railroad is open to Julesburg, 378 miles west of this point. Two daily trains will commence running each way on Monday. There are five million pounds of freight which has been awaiting this event now to be forwarded.

New York Items.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The ocean sweepstakes of the yacht club occurs July 13th. Five vessels are already entered.

Augustus Dock was suffocated by heavy gas in a deep well at Brooklyn, yesterday. Two others who attempted to rescue him were also suffocated.

The Surratt Trial.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The Surratt trial was resumed to-day and the Court overruled the defendant's motion and denied the privilege to recall a witness for the purpose of cross examination; defence noted an exception. Dr. May, who performed a surgical operation on the neck of Booth, testified having identified the body of Booth after death. Greenwood, of the Pennsylvania House, repeated his testimony given on the conspiracy trial, concerning Booth and Atzeroth. He recognized the prisoner as a frequent visitor at his house. The defence excepted to the testimony of these two witnesses as irrelevant. Boyd, the tavern keeper at Surrattville, testified that he rented the house of Mrs. Surratt. Surratt and Atzeroth left guns and rope to be concealed at his house on the night of the assassination. Booth and Harris called at his house to obtain the articles. He understood Booth to say that he had assassinated … Witness identified the carbine as the one taken by Harrold, owing to a peculiarity in the lock. Mrs. Surratt was also knowing to the articles being left at the house. She had come on the day before the murder and told him to have the guns ready for who ever called for them that night. The defense cross examined the witness at great length, the object being to show that a drinking man's memory could not be relied upon. The Court then adjourned.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—In the Surratt trial to-day, John M. Garrett testified to Booth and Harrold's presence at his father's house in Carolina county, Virginia, before Booth was killed. He identified the field glass as similar to the one found in Booth's possession. He also had four pistols and a bowie-knife. Witness identified Booth's diary as being in the same condition as when taken from Booth's body. Booth was killed in a barn on Elder Garrett's place.

Detective Luther B. Baker made a full statement of his part in the capture of Booth. He did not testify at the conspiracy trial. Other testimony was unimportant.

All the New England States, New York, Illinois, and other States were represented; also England and the British Provinces were represented. There was much enthusiasm everywhere. SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—The Union Ratification meeting held at Union Hall, last evening, was a grand affair and attended by over 4000 persons. Gen. Miller presided, with a large list of Vice Presidents. The meeting was addressed by Conness, Stewart, G. W. Tyler, Gov. Low, Revs. Cox and Briggs, Frank Pixley, Mr. Dwinelle and others. The speakers all urged Union men to stand firm and work for the ticket, and to lay aside all personal feelings in the matter of nominations and go into the canvass in one solid phalanx. Mr. Tyler, one of the speakers, who was a contesting delegate from this city at the State Convention, charged that Bidwell defeated himself for the Governorship in acceding to the admission of the short-hair San Francisco delegation before hearing what the people's delegation had to say. This was done on the night before the San Francisco delegation arrived at Sacramento City.

The speeches of Conness and Pixley were mainly devoted to Haight, the Democratic candidate for Governor. They commented severely on his course during the latter part of the rebellion, and his speech denouncing Lincoln and Stanton. Letters were read from parties who were invited to be present, but who were unable to attend; among them Gen. Rosecrans, Rev. Stebbins, A. A. Sargent, Gov. Stanford, Gov. PROSPECTING PARTY.—The Olympia Tribune of the 22d, speaks of the intended departure of a prospecting party from that place:

Mr. Jacob Summers, of this place, with several other persons, among whom are some practical miners, propose to form a party to thoroughly prospect the Newaukum, Cowlitz, and other rivers south and east of Olympia, for gold, silver, copper and other valuable minerals; after which—if nothing of importance is found in these localities—the party will continue their explorations along the western slope of the Cascades, and across the mountains to the Wenatchee country. In all these localities the precious metals are known to exist, but to what extent the prospecting hitherto has not been sufficiently thorough to determine. The party contemplate starting on this expedition in about two weeks and to continue their labors until the weather drives them out of the mountains, and in the meantime those who feel disposed to assist the development of our resources in the mineral line can manifest it by contributing something toward the necessary outfit of the party.

THE SORT WHO SELDOM DIE AND NEVER RESIGN.—Says the New York Tribune:

Some base ruffian has invented a paragraph about Randall (P. M. G.) resigning. This statement is promptly denied by an anxious correspondent. We are assured that the story that Randall has resigned, or ever contemplated resigning, or intimated that in any possible contingency he would resign, is false. The assurance is scarcely necessary. We believe in Randall. He will hold to an office as long as any member of the Johnson party, which is saying a great deal. He may die—which, Heaven forbid—he may be chosen to a higher place, which the people forbid—but he will never resign. If any of our anxious politicians hope to get into Randall's shoes, let them be patient and wait. With office-holders like Randall it is only a question of time—but still it is a question of time.

Ladies of London are signing an agreement to abstain from shopping after 10 o'clock on Saturdays.

FROM IDAHO.

MAN DROWNED.

Mr. Coleman, from the Dalles, was driving a band of cattle across the Boise near this city, on Tuesday, when one of his hands, whose name we did not learn, rode his horse into quicksand and swift water, and both horse and rider were carried away and drowned. The young man was one of two brothers who came from Oregon with Mr. Coleman as drovers. Seeing the danger, Mr. Coleman plunged in to rescue the drowning man, but to no purpose, though he came near drowning himself. He was only saved by an Indian running along the bank and throwing him a rope. He was pulled ashore almost exhausted. More care should be taken in fording or swimming the Boise. It is an ugly and dangerous stream to get into, particularly when the water is high.

NEW MAIL SERVICE WANTED.

Why should there not be a new mail route established between this place and Virginia City via Leesburg, Salmon City and Bannack? The local wants of the country on the route are beginning to demand it, to say nothing of that large population now settling on the Salmon river in what is called the Lemhi mines. A line of stages will be running this summer, which fact alone should be enough to establish to the satisfaction of the Post Office Department the need of postal service. The present stage route is by far too long and circuitous for messenger travel. There is no good reason why the mail should not be carried over the shorter route as well as passengers. Even should the Lemhi mines not meet the high expectations of the early prospectors; though it turn out to be a mining camp of moderate resources, there will still be population enough to justify establishing this route. Special Agent Brooks will, it is believed, recommend its necessity, and also that it will form the most favorable connections with other routes of any that can be made.

The Indian Situation.

[From the Denver News, June 5th.]

The Indian troubles which have so long been thickening have at last culminated in another Indian war. It bursts upon us with all its horrors of blood, murder and pillage, its obstructions of mails and coaches, its interruption of communication with the East, and its blighting effects on our prosperity. Although those who were to furnish us protection were forewarned and entreated, it comes finding them unprepared, and unable to cope with the foe that is now reddening our frontiers with blood, and carrying death and destruction in their path. The attacks on the Platte route indicate especially the deadly purpose of the Indians. They have come to regard the whites as cowards, and are hoping to exterminate or drive them from the country.

[illegible] affairs the government of the U[illegible] responsible. The policy which [illegible] have so long pursued has [illegible]. Whenever an arm was [illegible] the savage it was stayed by express [illegible] from Washington. The Indian [illegible] has been governed entirely by that mandate [illegible] which prevails at the east, and [illegible] representations of Indian agents whose interest it has been to keep the savages in a state of [illegible] when they could be bought up by presents to remain quiet for a time, and large [illegible] could be made by the agents. As a class, these Indian agents are the most unscrupulous set of land pirates who ever cursed a country. When a history of their operations comes to be written, it will be a more startling record of crime than the "[illegible] Own Book." These are the men who have been continually howling "peace, peace," when there was no peace. These are the men who have amassed wealth, while honest men lost their scalps. These are the men who laid all troubles to "imprudent" white men. These are the men who have so led the government, that it has been difficult to determine whether it was the Indian or white man who were being protected.

In this policy so fraught with future trouble, not a few men in our territory and city have been interested. When protection was asked, there were … sent the word that the Indians were peaceable and that no protection was needed. On the heads of these men let the blood of those who are murdered fall.

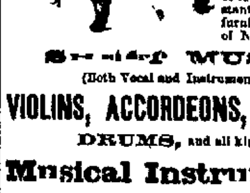

Whatever may be General Sherman's idea of Indians, we trust he will at once awake to the … which is now upon him. He has a task as difficult as it is important. To overcome the foe which is now ravaging our fair western territories, will require the most tremendous exertions. The Indians are determined on war, and if General Sherman has not found it out, he will be stamped as one of the most stupid commanders who ever wore the uniform of our national army. Let him make the war a final one, and relieve us from the curse which has so long overshadowed our frontiers. There can be no further trifling. The Indians must be conquered, now and forever.

If this policy is not to be pursued by the Government, we shall be obliged to advocate the first law of nature—self protection and self preservation. Our people will be obliged to wage an independent war on the savages, and know no law but extermination. From Governor Hunt's call, at present we can expect to realize but little. Our people cannot afford the expense. When it comes to the worst, however, let them rise in their strength and put an end to the Indian question, by a war which shall close only when there are no more savages to exterminate.

An old fellow of the ultra inquisitive order asked a little girl on board of a train, who was sitting by her mother, as to her name, destination, etc. After learning that she was going to Philadelphia, he asked: "What motive is taking you thither, my dear?" "I believe they call it a locomotive, sir," was the laconic reply. The intrusive stranger was extinguished.

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 27, 1867

Gallant Phil Sheridan

The more the country sees of Phil. Sheridan the greater reason it has to trust and to honor him He occupies the most difficult position of any officer of the army yet his management during the two years of his administration in New Orleans has been both successful and admirable All that he has done has been done on the side of loyalty and his summary yet just way of dealing with the pestilent rebels by whom he has been surrounded has elicited the admiration and awakened the gratitude of all loyal men To him the Unionists, white and black of Louisana and Texas are entirely indebted for protection against the intolerance, proscription and violence of the rebel element of those rebellious States, to him it is due that other frightful massacres of loyal men by rebels, like that of last July, have not been perpetrated, and to him belongs the credit of having expelled from place and power the infamous rebel officials who instigated that blackest of crimes Recognizing the character of the men he had to deal with, General Sheridan has dared to take the responsibility of thorough measures, yet everything has been done with judgment and propriety He has sometimes been interfered with by the marplot who sits at Washington and who since 1864 has discovered a wonderful tenderness for rebels, but notwithstanding this interference, he has preserved order, strengthened the loyal sentiment of his department and prepared the way for the restoration of those States to their old relations with the Union Sheridan proceeds upon the principle which all Union men two years ago thought was to be observed in reorganizing the Southern States,—the principle, as tersely expressed by Andrew Johnson before his apostasy, that 'rebels should take back seats." For a year there have been continual rumors that he was to be removed for his adherence to this course, and doubtless he would have been removed long ago had not a wholesome fear of Congress been kept before the eyes of the acting President. The spirit of Sheridan's last dispatch (published in our news columns to-day) is a noble reaffirmance of the course he has heretofore pursued. His honest characterization of the lately promulgated opinion of the Attorney General shows that he is determined at all hazards to do his duty on the side of loyalty. Phil Sheridan is daily adding to the laurels which during the war he so deservedly won

The Next President.

The St. Louis Democrat in a powerfully written article urges the nomination of Edwin M. Stanton as the Republican-Union candidate for the Presidency In looking over the list of names which have been mentioned in connection with the first office in the Republic, it would perhaps be difficult to make a more judicious selection No man living has performed more eminent services, no man has shown greater fidelity to the country, or adhered with greater firmness to the principles which have guided the loyal millions during the struggle and since its close. Secretary Stanton is the only member of the Cabinet who has refused to forsake the party which saved the country He is the only person prominently connected with the Administration who has not abandoned the policy which a victorious people expected to see enforced at the close of the rebellion. It is well known that he has dissented from all the principal measures of the present Administration, and that in the contest between a recreant President and a betrayed people, he has given the latter his steady support. Whenever his opinion has been asked, he has given it, and we cannot now recall an instance where it has been given in favor of the President in any great controversy between him and Congress. Secretary Stanton has stood by the people Only a few days ago his single voice was raised in the Cabinet against a measure which the President has determined upon, and which is calculated to encourage rebels and to embarrass and delay reconstruction To extol the services he has rendered during the last five years, or to magnify the abilities he has shown in his present position were needless He was the master spirit of the great struggle, distinguished alike for his efficiency as a war minister, for his grasp of mind in comprehending the questions involved in the struggle and for his advocacy of and fidelity to the principles on which the contest was prosecuted to a successful close. If General Grant is willing to be a candidate, of course he will obtain the honor, but if he is not a candidate, it will not be easy to make a better selection than Edwin M. Stanton

Representative Papers.

The Herald does not respond favorably to the proposition which a leading organ of its party has made to nominate Jefferson Davis as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency. It does not "believe that the Democratic party has any design of nominating Davis." Probably not, but their reason for not nominating him does not arise from any disapproval of his political principles or his late acts His Democracy is unquestioned and unquestionable, but he is not an available candidate Yet two thirds of the Herald's party would rather see him President than any other man who could be named.

The Herald asserts that the New York Day Book, the paper which has nominated Davis, is not a Democratic journal, and denies its right to speak for the Democratic party, It then digresses into a story about Wendell Phillips being a Republican. Now Wendell Phillips does not claim to be a Republican and never did He disclaims it But the Day Book claims to be a Democratic paper, and asserts that it represents the great mass of its party. The three Democratic newspapers having the largest circulation of any in the United States are the Day Book, the La Crosse (Wis) Democrat, and the Columbus (Ohio) Crisis These papers are precisely alike in tone and sentiment, and are therefore to be taken as the representative organs of the party.

As the Herald denies that the Day Book is a Democratic paper and asserts that it has no influence with that party, we take the liberty of giving it a lesson on this point

Shortly after the late election in Connecticut, the New Haven Palladium, a Republican paper, quoted some extracts from the Day Book to prove the animus of the Democratic party. The New Haven Register, a Democratic paper, indignantly disclaimed any sympathy with the Day Book's views,—just as the Herald has done,—and denied that it had any influence in the party In reply, the Day Book completely crushed the Register, just as it will serve the Herald if it ever sees that paper's article of yesterday. It asserted that the Day Book's circulation among the Connecticut Democracy was larger than that of the Register, and challenged that paper to deny the fact It then showed that the Day Book circulated more papers in a week than the Register did in a year, and warned the Connecticut paper never again to presume to say that the Day Book was not a Democratic journal The Register dared not respond The castigation it received should be a warning to the Herald and other insincere Democratic papers The truth is, the Day Book is a Democratic journal, and has more influence with its party than any other paper in the country Nor would its candidate, Jefferson Davis, be at all objectionable to a majority of the party. If they do not nominate him it will not be because they disapprove of his principles or his acts, but because of a fear that they cannot elect him.

The Empress Charlotte is very anxious for the safety of Maximilian and it is said to aggravate her mental disorder

STATE ITEMS

The firemen of Salem will give a grand ball on the evening of the Fourth of July

A gentleman from Josephine county states that the copper mines there have been tested far enough to render their future development a certainty The principal proprietor there—Mr Crandall—is satisfied after a thorough test of his apparatus and smelting furnace that for every dollar he invests in taking out copper, he will get a return of two dollars worth of metal.

Some days ago we copied from the Salem Record a statement that a human skeleton had been found near Champoeg. The Unionist gives the following additional particulars The skeleton was found covered with brush a medistance from the road bearing every indication of having been concealed there by some parties. Before the flesh had fallen from the bones When found the flesh was all gone, but the tendons and clothing indicate that it has not been a very long time since the unknown person was a living breathing being. No clew as yet has been found either to the name of the murdered individual or of his destroyers

The German colony expect a considerable accession to their numbers this fall from immigration The Unionist in a notice of this colony and the work achieved by it says The success of this colony should teach our citizens an important lesson as to the value of industry and persistent labor The farms and gardens around Aurora that now yield enormous quantities of food for man and beast have nearly all been cleared in heavy fir timber The idea has to a considerable extent prevailed among our people, that the task of clearing farms in our dense timber lands is too laborious and expensive to render it a profitable one The success that has attended the operations of this colony completely refutes this notion; and all those who have remained landless and homeless because they could not get in possession of prairie-lands would do well to take a hint from our hardy German citizens and pluck up their courage and pitch into the big fir trees, and make them give place to beautiful gardens and food producing fields

Who is responsible for the eight hour law? is now the question earnestly and bitterly discussed in the Chicago papers The Democratic Times lays it to the Republicans the Republican and Tribune retort that the Democrats also went in for it, and helped pass it, all agree that it is a fraud upon the workingmen, that it was not meant to have any practical effect upon labor or wages, and that it has done a great deal of mischief by exciting expectations that cannot be realized and so producing the recent violent demonstrations The Springfield (Mass) Republican says that both parties may as well cry quits, confess that they have been rivals in demagogism, and avoid all such bogus legislation in future The time could not have been more unfortunately selected for the eight hour movement Business of nearly all kinds is dull and declining, and the country is burdened with a load of debt and taxation that can only be carried by keeping up production to the highest point The good time may come when eight, or even six hours of daily labor will secure the means of comfortable living, but it clearly has not yet arrived, and legislation cannot hasten its coming by a single day.

A great variety of names have been proposed for our newly acquired territory. Somebody suggests William's Berg as a good name, embracing as it does the Christian name of its negotiator and the decidedly cool character of the acquisition.

ITS VALUE IS INCALCULABLE —For all diseases with which children are afflicted during the process of teething, MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP is a safe and certain remedy It has stood the test of thirty years, and never known to fail Cures wind colic, regulates the bowels softens the gums, and allays all pain Hostetter, Smith and Dean, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

It would be strange if they did not, for they are the only dyes in market people will buy Firm, beautiful, easily used, safe—what wonder they are so popular Sold by Smith & Davis

CHOLERA.

MR PERRY DAVIS —The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer induces me to pen a word in its praise Experience has convinced me that for Headache Indigestion Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills Weariness common Colds Hoarseness CHOLERA CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa Dysentery Toothache etc THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonful taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine glass full of hot water I am confident through the blessing of God it saved me from the cholera in the summer of 1843 Travelling amid heat, dust, toil change of diet and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy one teaspoonful curing the worse case in an hour or at the most, half a day I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the tooth it will stop the toothache Gratitude and a desire for its general use has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

SCARCITY OF ITEMS.—We once knew a publisher of a so-called daily paper. It was a daily and it was still not a daily; sometimes it was a daily and other times it was not a daily; nor was it a weekly, nor a semi-monthly, nor a monthly, nor a quarterly. So, dear reader, what was it—it was a newspaper, and yet it would not answer the description of any of the above adjectives. To be more definite, and satisfactorily do away with a mystery, it was a newspaper published daily, when there was any news to publish; if there was no news, no paper issued. We feel as if we ought to do just as that publisher did, with our local column. When there are no "locals," how can we publish them. If we indulge a vivid indignation and picture some terrible event, when the truth was ascertained we would be branded unreliable, and the hand of man would be raised against us. Integrity in itemizing is just as necessary as in any branch of business, and he who practices it, will in the end be the gainer. In any vocation, success in life is seldom gained except through the beautiful attribute of honesty. Ask any business man in the city his opinion and he will readily answer you that integrity is the harbinger of complete success. Punctuality is a necessary branch of the latter, and hence if one possesses the former the latter is an accompanying virtue. Should we not practice as everybody preaches, and when no items appear on the surface of the generally busy community in which we live, say so, and ask indulgence for that which we cannot help. The public are generous, especially towards the press, and they sometimes need the largest indulgence, and the people are forced to accept what the newsman says—behind his say-so, you cannot go, for by him is supposed to centre the knowledge of the community which it is proper that each constituent part should know of the other. To-day has been a busy day among business men, but a sort of lethargic disposition has seized that peculiar portion of our metropolis which makes news for the item-man. It is at times impossible for a reporter to procure all waifs of gossip, or all actual occurrences, which ought to fill up the local column,—hence, industry is badly needed, and sometimes a little impudence will secure for the public an important item, one perhaps which may have cost the "local" some humiliation—for which, however, he is fully recompensed by the estatic privilege he enjoys of publishing it to the world. For the present, we leave the subject, but will take it up where we left off, the very next day that we find a scarcity of city news.

A pretty drawing, by Adelia Sweeney, entitled "Happy Age," was completed and added to the other samples on exhibition.

1. The exercises commenced with an eight handed instrumental piece, "The Soldier"; chorus played by Fannie Combs, Emma Pambrun, Ollie Lisle and Kate Drier.
2. Class of five in French, examined in orthography, grammar and translation.

4. Class in Astronomy, Kittie O'Neal, Alice Harrison and Elmira Smith.
5. Essay—subject, "Beauties of Nature," by Miss Elmira Smith.
6. Physical Geography; class, Elmira Smith, Alice Harrison.
7. Natural Philosophy; class, Elmira Smith, Alice Harrison.
8. Declamation; subject, "The Poet's Pledge," by Alice Harrison.
9. Natural History; Elmira Smith, Alice Harrison.

13. Composition; subject, "A Dream," by Kate O'Neal.
14. Botany; Misses O'Neal, Harrison and Smith.
15. Essay; subject, "Flowers and their Language," by Alice Harrison.

17. Algebra; Anna Kent, Alice Harrison.
18. Essay, by Miss Amanda Mau; a return of thanks to the friends in attendance.

BIG BABY.—The local man of the Virginia Territorial Enterprise is responsible for the following. We copy from a late issue of that paper: Charley White, the well-known saloon-keeper, who holdeth forth at the International Hotel in this city, has become the father of a son, weighing fifteen pounds—not an ounce less, Charley swears. Wishing to see everybody happy—even poor devils of printers—Charley sent us a half dozen of fine champagne, but says that nobody must assert that his boy weighs less than fifteen pounds. We have tried the wine, and are ready to bet any man ten dollars that that boy weighs fifty pounds. Since the above was in type we tried more of the wine—the boy weighs one hundred and fifty pounds. Been trying it more, and are satisfied that the boy is bigger than we at first supposed—he weighs fifteen hundred pounds, and is getting heavier every minute.

A DUTIFUL WIFE'S EXPLANATION.—In the police-court of ..., says an exchange, a wife thus ingeniously explained away serious charges of harsh treatment of her poor husband: One day, when she was running across the room, with a fork in her hand, he jumped in the way, and struck his wrist against the fork, wrenching it from her grip by the tines, which he ran into his wrist. Then he undertook to strike her; but she held up a pan of hot dish-water between them, and he split it all over his head. Then he got still more angry at this accident, and started to jump at her; but his head came against her hand, and he fell down. She took hold of his hair to raise him up, and the hair was moistened by the hot water so that it came off. Then she saw it was no use to reason with him any longer, and she left the house.

LIME.—The San Juan lime, not heretofore in general use in this city, although last year a limited quantity of it was used, is likely to become an article of considerable importance in this section. The most of the cargo of the Crosby consisted of this lime and the rock from which it is burned. McCraken, Merrill & Co., and Everding & Beebe are the agents. The lime is now being used in the construction of the building being erected on the site of the old Bank of British Columbia, where it can be tested. The Crosby is engaged to furnish 150 tons per month of the rock to the Iron Works at Oswego, to be used in smelting.

ACCIDENT.—Last Sunday the little daughter of J. L. Tyson came near being drowned. Mr. T. had been boating with his family, and landed in a cove in East Portland, his little daughter being placed upon the bank, slipped and fell head first into the river—the water being 10 or 15 feet deep. Mr. T. seeing the danger, immediately leaped from the bank about 20 feet from the water, and luckily saved the babe. The child remarked after being rescued, "Pa, I had to drink that dirty water." Surely she was a little heroine.

IN TOWN.—Mr. Fitzgerald, a sufferer by the late fire in Idaho City, is in town for the purpose of having adjusted his losses by the insurance companies in which he was insured. Ladd & Tilton, agents for the Pacific Insurance Company, have paid him $10,000—the full amount of insurance he had in that company; and the payment of the $7,000, for which he was insured in the Union Co., rather hangs fire, but Mr. F. thinks soon all will be settled.

CIRCUIT COURT—SHATTUCK, JUDGE.—The following are the proceedings of yesterday: State of Oregon vs. Dorville Brown; motion to dismiss indictment overruled, and allowed until the 8th of July to plead. Indictments were presented by the Grand Jury against three parties, one for larceny, one for gambling, and one for assault, being armed with a dangerous weapon.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The Council did not meet last evening as was expected. It seemed that the cohesive power which held the old Council gave way, and it flew into as many pieces as there were Councilmen. In the language of one of the members—"Court convened, and there being no Court, court adjourned." To-morrow evening the new Council convenes.

IDAHO NATIONAL BANK.—This Bank is now in operation at Boise City, Idaho,—B. M. DuRell, President, and C. H. Moore, Cashier. Sight and exchange for coin or currency can be purchased from Ladd & Tilton, Bankers, in this city. Collections are a prominent feature of the institution, and is entirely reliable for promptness, dispatch and early returns.

NEWS FROM DOWN THE RIVER.—The revenue cutter Joe Lane brought up a corps of engineers who have decided to locate more guns at Fort Stevens, and Fort Hancock at Cape Disappointment. They have also decided to locate another fort 25 miles this side of Astoria, for which object they came up on Monday last, and made the necessary surveys.

ON A VISIT.—L. F. Lane, Esq., is on a visit to Portland, and looks quite well and hearty. He informs us that Andrew Barlow, his brother-in-law, who was shot a short time since by one Delamater, is, he thinks, out of danger, although badly wounded—the ball having passed through one lung.

COMPLIMENT.—The printers of the OREGONIAN office have many thanks for Capt Cahalin and his generous body of stalwart Fenians, for the invitation he extended to them last evening to attend the hall and receive their hospitality. It is almost unnecessary to say that the invitation was gladly accepted and the refreshments highly enjoyed.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The man Simmons who was complained against several days ago, was arrested and yesterday morning had his trial in this Court. He was discharged.

James White was also arrested for an assault, and was discharged.

ODD '76.—The members of the "Honori Society" will hereafter meet at their club room, No 76, Front street, which will be open at all times. The regular meeting will take place at 8½ o'clock, sharp, this (Thursday) eve..., at which a full attendance of members and those wishing to join, is requested.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Under this head will be found an advertisement in the OREGONIAN. If any information can be obtained of the object of the advertisement, great anxiety will be relieved on the part of her relatives. If alive, personal profit will accrue, by virtue of certain property wanting an heir.

ELECTION LAST EVENING.—The following are the officers elected last evening, for the ensuing year, for Samaritan Lodge No. 2, I. O. of O. F. C. C. Phillipps, N. G.; Wm. H. Andrews, V. G.; C. A. Dolph, R. S.; C. H. Marvin, P. S.; Isaac Barman, Treasurer.

THE FISHERIES.—The fisheries down the river are being supplied with men in consequence of our notice published a few days since, but a few more are wanted—so Captain Kerns, of the Grant, informs us.

THANKS.—We are in receipt of a box of strawberries from O. LaDu, Esq., of Cowlitz county, W. T. They were grown below the Cowlitz on the Columbia river, and exceed anything of the kind we ever witnessed—being large, fine looking and luscious fruit.

A MANIAC.—Yesterday a maniac, resident near Salem, was brought down by the Senator and taken to the Insane Asylum. His ravings on the ferry boat were terrific—it required two men to hold him, although heavily ironed.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The following transpired in the Circuit Court:

P. J. McGowan vs. the city of Portland; Injunction dissolved and decree entered in favor of the city.

PLEASURE SCHOONER.—Thomas Mountain, Esq., is engaged in rigging up a schooner in grand style, for the purpose of accommodating parties desirous of making a trip over the Columbia bar on a fishing excursion.

GOODS.—Since the arrival of the Oriflamme our merchants and jobbers can fill any bill which circumstances require. Stores and warehouses are brimming full of goods, of all kinds and descriptions.

THE FENIANS.—The Fenians met last night to take action in regard to the Fourth. If there is a celebration they will assist; if not, they will have a Fenian pic-nic.

DISCHARGING.—The Live Yankee will complete discharging freight to-morrow, and will take on a cargo of produce and leave for San Francisco next week.

FREIGHT.—The Senator yesterday brought down freight as follows: 2,046 sks flour, 400 sks feed, 31 sks bacon, 8 bales woolens, 1 case merchandise.

LEMHI GOLD.—To-day Mr. C. P. Ferry will receive one hundred ounces of Lemhi gold—probably the first received in Portland from those mines.

MEETS TO-NIGHT.—The Hibernian Society meets tonight to take into consideration measures for the celebration of the Fourth of July.

WANTS TO REMAIN.—Every society in town, so far as we can learn, prefers to remain and celebrate the Fourth in Portland.

DEPARTS.—The Crosby departs this morning under the wing of the Okanagan, which will safely see her in sailing waters.

MAJOR FRANCIS.—The Paymaster, Major Francis, goes to-day on the Okanagan to pay off troops at San Juan and Ft. Steilacoom.

ARRIVED.—The Grant arrived yesterday and brought up a cargo of the freight saved from the wreck of the Scranton.

THE CASCADES.—This steamer yesterday brought down a large lot of wool and dry hides.

GOES ON SATURDAY.—The Grant goes down the river on Saturday.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.—The great French commercial traveler, Mons. de Abbou, said: "The great secret of success in trade is, first to get customers, and second to be able to keep them." Barman Bros. fully convinced of the truth of the above saying, sell Suits at $9; White Shirts, $1 50; Cassimere Pants, $5 50; Rubber Ties, 50c; Collars, 12½c. They by so doing comply with Mons. de Abbou's first rule, and as everything they sell is the genuine article, and no humbug, they are able to keep their customers, corner of Front and Morrison sts., Portland.

MRS. ADELINE A. COVEL, 92 Jane street, says the Grover & Baker Machine is always ready when she wants to do anything, and that it is in this respect superior to Wheeler & Wilson's. It is also preferable to any other machine for tucking and sewing on bias seams, on account of the ease with which it is learned, and using the threads from ordinary spools. Wm. Currier & Co., Agents, 105 Front street, Portland, Oregon.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital, $100,000. B. M. DuRell, President. C. W. Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places in Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Sight and Exchange for Coin or Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

A SPLENDID INSTRUMENT.—We saw, yesterday, at J. L. Parrish & Co's something new in the way of an organ—a French instrument called the Organ Harmonium—invented by Alphonse Rodolpho. It is a very considerable modification of the organ as we have them from the American manufactories. It is provided with sixteen stops, each of which exercises a distinct and peculiar effect upon the tone. The bass stops are the Forte, Jeu Doux, (soft, sweet) Basson, Clarion, Boudon, English Horn; the treble stops are Expression, Tremolo, Scotch Bagpipe, Flute, Clarionette, Fife, Hautbois, Voix Celeste, Forte, and Knee or Full Expression. The effect of these stops in changing the tone is most surprising. For instance: from the flute to Voix Celeste with Full Expression, the tone changes from what sounds precisely like a soft flute, to the full grand harmony which we would expect from an Angel choir—what the name imports. The Key-Board is movable and can be adjusted to any key, to any instrument, or to the voice of any singer. Other changes are no less surprising. The instruments are of the most perfect workmanship and of the highest finish; have taken the first medals at all the great European Expositions. The prices range from $175, to $500. Persons in want of an instrument should call and see them, for it is impossible to get a correct idea of them, except from personal inspection. J. L. Parrish & Co., are sole agents for the Pacific coast.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

California Politics.

We have before mentioned that there is much dissatisfaction with a portion of the ticket nominated by the late Union State Convention of California Gorham, the nominee for Governor, in view of this dissatisfaction has put forth the following address

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18, 1867.

To the Union Party of California As the nominee of the Union party of the State for the office of Governor, the welcome task is imposed on me of sounding the note of preparation for the impending contest. Previous to the nomination the usual efforts were made on behalf of the several candidates The claims of all having been submitted to the State Convention, and the choice having fallen upon me, I am gratified at being able to say that the representative men of the several elements of the party have warmly and enthusiastically assured me that they will now, as in the past labor zealously for the success of the cause, and they will soon be heard rallying the masses to the support of the Union ticket The party press, true to principle, have, so far as I have heard, already entered upon the campaign

I need not remind any of you of the perils of the past six years Through war and blood our blessed nation has been preserved—through the madness of those who would have betrayed us after victory, and through the wisdom of Congress liberty and justice are being established throughout the length and breadth of the land. But the work is not done yet. True it is that many of the brightest intellects and bravest hearts of the South have abandoned all projects for restoring the past; to such the nation holds out welcoming arms. But prejudice, blindness, hardness of heart and perverted judgments are yet too prevalent in the lately rebellious States to render it safe for the patriotism of the country to slumber. The party which saved the nation must not relax control of the Government while the embers of rebellion yet glow; nor must any party ever maintain a hold on power in the land which has for its corner stone the hatred of a race of men. The war of opinion is not yet fought through; it is to go on until national citizenship shall be beyond the control of local authority, and manhood alone be the test of the right to a voice in the Government. These are the honest views of the great body of the American people, and whoever questions the policy of giving them utterance let him take courage in the reflection that his neighbor is no more likely to be unjust than himself. With such aims as these in view, who shall dare to raise his voice to make discord in the only party through which they can be accomplished? Who shall dare, by sowing dissensions in the party now, to peril success next year at the Presidential election, not only in California, but in Oregon and Nevada, upon the political action of which this, the parent State, exercises so commanding an influence? But, independent of the importance of the national questions involved, who is willing to see the restoration of the Democracy to rule in this State? Shall we intrust to that party the management of the common school system? Shall they be relied upon to pass judgment upon measures inaugurated for the development of the State, and to be free to direct and educate to their expressed doctrines the coming thousands of immigrants who are to till our fields, delve in our mines and construct our great systems of public improvements? The tyranny and profligacy of Southern rule in California are yet too well remembered by the people to admit of the thought of its returning.

But notwithstanding the vital necessity at this time of the success of the Union party principles and Union party organization, murmurings of discontent are heard from quarters which have sometimes left us and down the party line. A portion of the independent press, refusing at all times to be bound by the action of the Conventions of the party, has attempted to dictate its policy and its nominations, and failing to overawe its assembled representatives, has taken up arms against the organization. A persistence in this course will make them the allies of the Democratic party, and as such must be met as we meet all foes of our cause These papers forbade my nomination by the Union State Convention. They say I have been employed to urge upon the Legislature schemes for the improper expenditure of public money. The charge is without foundation and utterly untrue. I never in my life aided in the passage of any measure by the Legislature for a consideration. I never made use of nor advised any improper influence to reach any legislator in behalf of any measure. It is well known that my presence at the last Legislature was at first for political purposes—to aid in the elevation of another, not myself, to office; and subsequently, to urge party action on national subjects, then of great moment, and to solicit aid for the circulation of a little sheet called the Free American, through which I was, at my own expense, calling public attention to the subject of reconstruction. I mean to be clearly understood as giving a full and complete denial to all the charges made against me, not one of which can for a moment stand in the presence of the light of truth. But they go further, and say that I am sure, if elected, to be under the control of schemers and jobbers. To those who know me, so absurd a proposition needs no denial. But I know I must address myself to those who do not know me. Much has been said of measures for the disposal of property belonging to the State, and charges are made that those interested have secured pledges from me that I will, if elected, give such measures my sanction. These charges are untrue, and so far from their having any foundation in fact, I here emphatically declare that no bill to dispose of State property anywhere without a full and just compensation could ever have my sanction. If any have aided in my nomination with an expectation contrary to this declaration, let them dismiss such hopes forever. It is also said that I would approve heavy appropriations to aid public improvements. Let me reply, and be explicit: I believe that public improvements necessary to the building up of the material interests of the State must rely mainly on private enterprise, and that public aid should only be invoked after great outlays of private capital have already been made, and I pledge myself to the taxpayers of this State that no measure to add to the burden of the public debt shall ever receive my approval, in the event of my election, unless it is clearly to the advantage of the Commonwealth; no interest of private persons shall ever be subserved through me at the expense of the State I have made no pledges expressed or implied, to any corporation or individual, upon any proposed measure whatever. To an economical administration of the State Government; to firmness in the execution of the laws, to a watchful care in the examination of claims against the State; to humane and thoughtful attention to the poor, to the insane and the criminal, to the appointment of none but trustworthy and competent men to office; to fidelity at all times to the cause of education, to boldness of speech in behalf of the right when great issues shall arise—to all these I pledge myself most unreservedly. I trust I am on better terms with my Maker than I can believe my cruel calumniators to be, and in His presence I again asseverate the truth of all I have said. Let him judge me. My heart is light, and my conscience is clear.

One of the journals of this city affects to misunderstand a remark made by me to the State Convention, and makes it the basis of an offensive suggestion. I will reproduce what was really said, and set the matter finally at rest. After alluding to assaults on me, I said, if anything could be pointed out in my life against my private character, or if any failure to discharge my public duty could be shown, that I should cheerfully retire from the contest. Notwithstanding my name has been under discussion for a year, the utmost malignity of my enemies has been foiled in all efforts to fix a blemish upon me, and I now declare irrevocably that the party banner which has been intrusted to my keeping by the finally unanimous voice of the Union State Convention shall be held aloft by me until the day of election, and that I would as soon think of surrendering it into the hands of those who rejoiced at the assassination of the martyred Lincoln, as of laying it down at the bidding of men who are eagerly whetting their knives to seek the life of the invincible Union party.

For all who are Union men I have the feeling of a fellow soldier in a sacred cause. Let us forget the bickerings of the last two weeks and resolve on victory. For open and manly political opponents I have the proper respect. For those who would, after time is given for the blood to cool, strike at the cause under a pretext of being dissatisfied with the nominations, I have nothing but defiance and scorn At no time and under no circumstances will I desert the post of duty to which I have been legitimately assigned by my party. The Union organization has a charmed life, and nothing can destroy it until its great mission is fulfilled I will do my whole duty during the whole canvass, visiting all accessible portions of the State. I shall thus meet you face to face, and we can come to a good understanding.

Fellow laborers in the great party of progress Give me your confidence. I mean to be true and right, and believe I can be of service to the State Young men of the party I, a young man, claim fellowship with you To your enthusiasm are due the victories of the past. In this campaign outdo yourselves. Working men. We have pledged ourselves to your interests Stand by the party of free labor To those who do not belong to our party, I say come over to us, and we will do you good, your friends are pledged to measures which are obsolete, your leaders are on probation. Make no longer a hopeless struggle against destiny. Join us to carry into effect the wise and humane legislation of Congress for the Southern regions, and enjoy with us the return of the era of peace, liberty, justice and union.

General Butler Defends Himself

[Correspondence of the New York Evening Post]

BOSTON May 21—I met Gen Butler this morning and had a long talk with him on national affairs. He is as "full of fight and fun" as ever and not a bit inclined to throw up the sponge in any of the sparrings he is carrying on with his political opponents He is attending to his law business, and will probably not make any public speeches this summer although he has received nearly four hundred invitations to lecture from all parts of the country. The statement in the New York Herald that he has been corresponding with Miss Surratt in the matter of the trial of her brother is not correct, although, judging from his theory of a lawyer's duty, I do not suppose that he would decline to appear as the counsel for the prisoner This, however, even if an theatre (to use Orpheus C Kerr's nice distinction), is not official. In the course of our conversation he referred to a paragraph in the Boston Traveller, in Hazewell's "Review of the week," and said that, as it related to public affairs, he was writing a reply to it At his room I obtained a copy of it, which you can thus publish simultaneously with the journal to which it is addressed Here it is:

BOSTON, May 21, 1867

To the editor of the Traveller.—I clip from your paper of the 19th.

"Two of the big guns of the impeachment faction have been completely spiked. It has been proved before the Judiciary Committee of the United States House of Representatives that the story which was set a-going by General Butler, that President Johnson corruptly pardoned one hundred and ninety-three deserters has not one word of truth in it, and that the story that eighteen pages had been taken from Booth's diary is also an invention. General Butler must be more careful, or he'll get 'bottled up' again."

Making it a rule never to answer a personal newspaper slander unless it concerns some public interest, it is generally a safe business either to misrepresent my actions or misrepresent my motives. To meet false statements of proofs in a grave public accusation, I "break a custom."

As no word of the evidence before the Judiciary Committee has been allowed to be published, how could the editor of the Traveller know the statement to be true that "it has been proved before Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives that the story that was set a going by General Butler, that President Johnson corruptly pardoned one hundred and ninety-three deserters, has not one word of truth it?" On the contrary, it has been put in evidence to the Committee that President Johnson, at the solicitation of Tom Florence, editor of the rebel sheet in Washington, on the 23d of October, two days before the election in West Virginia, from a letter of the Democratic candidate for Congress to the President, that they would vote the ticket, and without any other evidence of their deserving than a letter of a claim agent (who was to have half of their forfeited back pay and bounties for getting the pardon) did pardon unconditionally, with restoration of all pay and allowance forfeited by desertion, one hundred and ninety-three men, who stood on the rolle of their regiments marked as "deserters," and some of them charged with deserting to the enemy. It was also proved that the claim agent, who expected to make thirty thousand dollars out of the job, paid Florence one thousand dollars for his share of the plunder.

I know that such testimony was given, because I have a sworn affidavit of the fact made before the witness went before the Committee, and I have sure means of knowing that the same facts were there testified. It is true that the War Department order restoring these men is not dated till the 25th of November—thirty days after election, but the President's order was dated before election; and the Department took thirty days to investigate the case of one man of the 193, who was proved to have deserted to the enemy, and then obeyed the Executive order as to the 192. So that no thanks are due to Johnson that all these deserters were not restored before the election, as he had ordered to be done without investigation before the election, thereby taking $75,000 from the fund appropriated to the disabled soldiers and giving it to those deserters and claim agents These facts no truthful person has contradicted anywhere.

Again: let me examine the assertion that "the story that eighteen pages had been taken from Booth's diary is also an invention."

Booth's diary his been before the Committee, and eighteen pages are carefully cut out, being the pages down to the very day of the assassination. The only question I raised was: When and by whom were these leaves cut out? Booth, while hunted for his life through swamps and byways, after the assassination, would hardly have leisure for such amusement; besides, on horseback, with one leg broken, it might be difficult to get a ruler or a straight edge by which to trim the leaves as nicely as it is done. Everything taken from Booth's person was put in evidence on the trial of Mrs. Surratt—even to a bill of exchange taken out of the same diary—except this diary itself and the valuable diamond pin which he wore. These alone were kept back. Why cannot the eighteen leaves of the diary and pin now be found? Until those having had custody of the articles taken from the body can account for all of them I must be excused for believing the testimony that the articles are all now in the same condition as when found. If the witness can be found who has got the pin, perhaps he can tell us who has the missing leaves. Upon the whole, do you really think the missing leaves are an invention?

As my hand is in, perhaps it will be well to look up the origin of the phrase which uninventive persons have appropriated to themselves. You say: "General Butler must be more careful, or he'll get 'bottled up' again" True, he may be,—in the same way as before. In May, 1864, when operating against Richmond and Petersburg General Butler received orders from General Grant to send away all the troops he could with safety spare to reinforce the army of the Potomac on the Peninsula—then about to fight the battle of Coal Harbor. In obedience thereto, Gen. Butler sent General Grant seventeen thousand picked men of the twenty-five thousand effective men, including black troops, then under Gen. Butler's command. Whereupon General Butler complained that the necessities of the army of the Potomac had "bottled him up in Bermuda Hundred." That complaint was repeated about his headquarters, and in the very words will be found to have been published in the correspondence from thence to the New York Times of that date. Eighteen months afterwards, General Grant incorporated the words in a grave official report, without giving, as I have done, the reason for their pertinancy; and the phrased thus used by him was deemed a scintillation of genius. The inventor did not think as highly of his own production, however, even a borrowed rushlight shines widely in a thick mist. Respectfully, your obedient servant,

BENJ. F. BUTLER.

DICKENS AND HIS CREATIONS.—Chas. Dickens is fifty-four years old, and often walks twenty-eight miles before dinner, and is seen playing croquet with his daughters on Sunday afternoon. Of the living and dead originals of some of Dickens' characters, we have these speculations and reminiscences in a London letter

He has publicly apologized for investing Harold Skimpole, in Bleak House, with the peculiarities of the late Mr. Leigh Hunt, though protesting that he never had the least thought of attributing to his friend those baser qualities which are so unfortunately conspicuous in Skimpole. But the habit of sketching friends is a dangerous one. There is Boythorn, the loud, blusterous, headstrong Boythorn, of the same novel, whom everyone took for the late Savage Landor. It was a safer thing to take the notorious murderess, Mrs Manning, the French woman, and make her a character, as he does in Bleak House, for if you sketch living folks it is indispensable to make them amiable, like the Cheerbly Brothers in Nicholas Nickleby. Those gentlemen, the Grants, of Ramsbottom, in Lancashire, have recently had a monument erected to their memory as the recognized original of those worthies—indeed, the fact was mentioned in the sermon preached after the inauguration. Apropos of this, it is just worth mentioning that the feelings of the young lady of the refreshment encounter at Rugby Junction are much hurt at that unfavorable account of her which our great novelist has put forth this Christmas under the thin disguise of the young person at Mugby Junction. As there is no Mugby Junction, and everybody, on the contrary, knows Rugby Junction and its refreshment room, how is it possible for the public to mistake who is meant?

Dr Boyd, a gentleman who honorably aided in the escape of slaves, was sentenced for this offense to fifteen years in the prison of the District of Columbia, but was pardoned by Mr. Lincoln after having served eighteen months of the term When Dr Boyd lately applied for registry in Washington, he was refused, on the ground that no one could be registered who had been "convicted of an infamous offense" He appealed to the Supreme Court of the District, and it has promptly upset this atrociously absurd ruling Judge Olin holds that the President's pardon restored Dr Boyd to his political rights, and Judge Fisher that he has not committed the infamous crime.

Longfellow, Lowell and Agassiz.

A Cambridge (Mass) correspondent of the Independent gives the following sketches of Longfellow, Lowell and Agassiz

On our way we came to a large square wooden house, with nothing especially attractive about it It stands back from the street its front in full view, looking over Charles river. Near it at the sides a few trees and bushes relieve the open space This is the house known as Washington's Headquarters, and here for many years has lived Henry W Longfellow, the sweetest and most romantic of American poets The house seems full of him The spacious rooms are furnished with unostentatious luxury, elegant literature is freely strewn about, pictures, engravings and miscellaneous works of art adorn the walls and grace the mantles The library, on the second floor front, expresses the occupant It is a large sunny room, filled with books in all languages, that seem to have fallen in their places at the bidding of the muse Here sits the poet Mr Longfellow was always a poet to look at—in form, feature and expression, a poet Lawrence's portrait, engraved for the small blue and gold edition of the poetical works, gives an admirable idea of his head and countenance in its finest mood, though not in its domestic aspect Since the fearful death of his wife, the outward man of the poet has altered much The step is less buoyant than it was, the bearing less joyous, the look less elate The fieldsman has matured into an exceeding mellowness of dignity Ripe and rich looking he always was—exquisitely neat in dress and exquisitely elegant in person—though always animated by a sentiment that saved him from the suspicion of foppery But now he has attained a wonderful completeness of expression His aspect is that of a bard in the full affluence of his years and the full wealth of his genius His silvered hair is long and wavy His beard grows white and thick beneath his chin, looking more like a deep lace ruff than anything else His voice is melodious as an organ, and his features handsome as ever, have been touched with new lines by the action of thought and sorrow. His manners are beautiful to all persons; and he carries about him that indescribable atmosphere that marks the perfectly cultured gentleman

But we do not go far without meeting other humanity more remarkable and far more famous Here, for example, comes a man of notable presence How are you, Professor Agassiz, always young? Agassiz is the youngest looking man of his years you ever saw. In less than a month he will be sixty, but one must go to the record to find it out. Firmly set, round and juicy, with skin as soft as a boy's, and sound, sweet flesh, he would justify middle age, did not his face, on close inspection, tell by innumerable signs, of severe and protracted labor. His hair is thin, his eyes are worn with observation, his forehead is marked with lines of thought The manner of Agassiz is direct and hearty; he has a sweet voice, which his piquant foreign accent makes especially pleasant to hear, and when animated, as he easily is, his small eyes laugh and twinkle with mirth. Nature has kept the man young in flesh and spirit. He is a child of nature I remember, years ago, spending a golden autumnal day with him in the woods, in company with some gentlemen who went out to visit a huge and singularly-formed rock, which was noted as a local curiosity. The man seemed to have eyes in every part of his head.

Here lives the poet Lowell, on his ancestral estate. His library is rich in literature, well saturated with the perfume of the fragrant weed in which the witty humorist delighted. Here are plenty of old books, rare and precious—chronicle, romaunts, antique tomes of quaint poety, for Lowell is learned in such lore and fond of it. Rumors have been about for years, to the effect that he meant to reproduce some of its grand traditions in modern verse. Lowell is very striking in his personal appearance—strikingly handsome he is usually called—though handsome is not precisely the word to use. He looks like one of Ruben's portraits. His head is finely developed in the intellectual and moral organs. His color is prevailing brown. His strong reddish brown hair, parted from the middle of his low but white forehead, falls in thick curls down his shoulders. His beard is of the same color. The expression of his face is not sweet, but earnest and grave rather, except when it is lighted up by mirth or inspiration. Lowell is forty-eight years old; but he looks younger. His form is lithe and compact; his manner quiet; an air of self-composure is always about him. He is remarkably genial with his friends; fond of jest and talk; but with strangers he is reserved. Only those see Lowell to advantage who see him intimately—and they see one of the most delightful men in the world.

TERRIBLE MILITARY INVENTIONS.—The Progress, of Lyons, publishes a letter from a chemist of Marseilles, who suggests a mode of opposing the needle guns by a Greek fire he has invented. He says:

To give an idea of the efficacy of my discovery, I declare, and am ready to prove, that I can, at a distance of 1,000 metres, envelope an army of 100,000 men in a sea of flame, within less than five minutes. If a town has to be taken by assault I have no need of a Rotopachine, as I can set it on fire in very nearly the same period. In a naval battle I would run into the enemy, and in fifteen seconds cover all the deck of the vessel with a torrent of flame which would burn the rigging, penetrate between the decks, and instantaneously stifle all the crew. In an attack on a seaport, I could burn the town and arsenals within range with the rapidity of lightning. With such means no war is possible, as neither victors nor vanquished would return from the field of battle. As to the Fortress of Luxemburg, the subject of dispute at the present moment, I undertake to rid it of its garrison in a quarter of an hour.

The Progress adds that if there is no exaggeration in the above description, such an invention would certainly put an end to all war.

The gun which the French are making such a noise about is said to be terrible in effects. Herr Struve, a well known German Republican, states that it was offered to him seventeen years ago, but he had no money to purchase it. He saw it in operation in London (!) in 1840, when a two pounder discharged three hundred balls in a minute, while another, a twelve pounder, threw from fifty to sixty. Ignition is caused by means of a tourniquet, very much like the handle of a coffee mill, set in motion either by hand or by steam. There is neither rebound or report, nor even smoke The barrel not becoming heated, the machinery may be in full activity for hours, spitting balls with a continuity similar to that of the water issuing from the hose of a fire engine.

Dentists, however cheerful, are obliged to look "down in the mouth."

LEFFEL'S

AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE

THESE WHEELS, unequaled and unrivaled in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, more than forty being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c, &c.

On account of the extraordinary demand, our stock of wheels is considerably reduced, and we are entirely out of several sizes, therefore parties contemplating using our wheel, to be certain of securing them in time, should give their order at least three months before they expect to get them, that we may be able to make them by the time needed

We cheerfully refer to all using our wheels, and are assured that all will affirm that our wheels accomplish all and even more than we claim for them Address

Fountain of Life!

THE

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARRIVE when a new direction is imparted to its course thereby inspired from discovery of new facts shedding a light which changes the whole aspect of the science The present is an epoch of this kind, and this Great Remedy, now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood. The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts, it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Esculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical Science, which can vie with or excel the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most inveterate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be more safely and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER Thousands have been swept into their graves who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health It requires no article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself During the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found wanting

Dr HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world, and eradicate the disease entirely from the system, or no charge made—provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured.

FOR REFERENCE:

I would refer you to L L Peck, of Portland, Oregon, and numbers of others, as to what a miraculous effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco, Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz. Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fœted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

As a tonic it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for, while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary efforts that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc
